by deleting the second sentence in subdivision (b)(4) of the amendatory language of Section 1 of the printed bill and replacing it with the following language:

At the hearing for a child who has reached the age of seventeen (17), the court shall ensure, and the record shall reflect, that the child has notice of and understands the child's opportunity to receive, if eligible, all available voluntary post-custody services from the department by having the department present evidence regarding services that are available to the child beginning at the age of eighteen (18).
